Research Project Reflection Questionnaire

Now that the research project is finished, it's time to think back and reflect on this process as a whole. This reflection should include your thoughts about the research process (in the library and computer labs), the construction process (in the computer labs and for homework), and the concluding activities (the final presentations and the Blanchard Press Conference).

Please answer the following questions in COMPLETE SENTENCES on this paper. There are additional questions on the back of the paper.

1. What was your research topic?

2. How would the world be different if YOUR PERSON was not born?

3. What was the most important aspect you learned about the RESEARCH PROCESS (finding information in the library, on the Internet, or at home)?

4. What was the most important aspect you learned about the CONSTRUCTION PROCESS of a presentation?

5. Was the Blanchard Press Conference a beneficial way to judge the most influential person in the seventh grade?

6. Is there one change the seventh grade could make next year to make this Research Project better? Explain.

7. Any additional comments
