

Unleashing the Unrivaled Power of Literacy

Save the date!

Renaissance brings Dr. Jan Bryan to Massachusetts to discuss the Power of Literacy

Every educator knows there's no shortage of conversations about literacy. Yet, data suggests most US students read less than 15 minutes a day. We think it's time we quit the chatter and obsess over a plan of action for literacy success instead.

Join us as we bring clarity to this important topic and discuss:

- Three powerful and often overlooked actions that improve student performance
- The changing role of independent reading and how to fully tap it to propel all learning
- New insights from cognitive science related to literacy
- The most viable way to build robust vocabulary and the role background knowledge plays
- How Renaissance Accelerated Reader 360®, Renaissance myON Reader™, Renaissance myON News™, and Renaissance Star 360® enable teachers to help students of all ability levels become highly literate

We suggest sending district leaders, principals or assistant principals, and reading and assessment specialists.
